MISSION STATEMENT

UNIVERSIDAD DE LAS AMÉRICAS

CIUDAD DE MÉXICO

Mission

The Universidad de las Américas, A.C. (UDLACDMX), founded 76 years ago, is a private, non-profit, higher education institution with the following purposes:

- » To educate professionals with full mastery of English, capable of satisfying the requirements of corporations and productive projects in Mexico and the United States of America.
- » To obtain and spread knowledge, disseminate culture and promote international understanding.

The University has a fundamental commitment: to educate within an environment of freedom, without distinction of nationality, race, gender, religion, political beliefs, social condition or physical aptitudes.”

Vision

At the dawn of the Twenty-first Century, the Universidad de las Américas, A.C. remains at the forefront in the training of professionals with a full mastery of English, capable of satisfying the needs of companies and productive projects in Mexico and the United States of North America. This vision is linked to our commitment to comprehensive training, our bilingual (Spanish-English) tradition and to our principles for excellence

Principles for Bilingual Educational

- » Having Professors with high academic levels and having an unrestricted respect to academic freedom.
- » Continuously updating its educational programs through participatory evaluation processes.
- » Having an English Language Cultural Program in order to maintain the bilingual education tradition as an active culture, through the teaching of English and the teaching of courses in English.
- » Conducting Institutional and Educational Research with a commitment to educational quality and the improvement of student learning and Scientific Research applied to the fields of Management, Information Technology and Computer Science, Psychology, Business, Trade and International Relations, Education, Law and Communications.
- » Maintaining the necessary financial strength to meet its educational objectives.
- » Providing Educational Support Resources, expanding student and teacher access to the learning resources and services and to the appropriate learning and information technologies
- » Promoting Student Development through the student's intellectual, social, moral, cultural and physical growth by means of Academic Tutoring, Extracurricular Activities, Sports Activities and Cultural Activities.
- » Promoting Ethics, with a fundamental commitment from all members of the community to the institutional values and an unrestricted respect for the professional and personal values of the individuals who are part of this community”
